Grading

40% Quizzes
30% Tests/Projects
15% Classwork
15% Homework/
Participation

To be prepared for ELA,
you will need the following
each day::

- Pencil
- Agenda/Homework Folder
- ELA Notebook
- Novel
- Chromebook
- Toolbox

Failure to arrive prepared to class will result in a participation deduction

Behavior Expectations

To get the most out of each day in ELA you should...

- Participate, ask questions, share insights and connections often!
- Demonstrate your best effort each day
- Complete assigned homework on time.
- Review for tests and quizzes on your own
- Respect others, property, and yourself

You may not love every single assignment or novel, but I promise that each has a purpose and I will do my best to make it a great year..

Homework Policy

Expect homework in ELA to be graded on accuracy, effort, and completion. Remember that you can ask any questions throughout the week, but that is more difficult if you start the night before it is due.

iReady (45 minutes and 1 passed lesson) due by 3:15 each Friday.

I will accept late HW according to the policy below.

A main goal of long-term assignments is to help you learn to prioritize and manage your time.

Late & Make-Up Work Policy

Assignments can be turned in for PARTIAL CREDIT up to ONE WEEK late. After one week, late assignments are no longer accepted for credit because they are no longer as meaningful/relevant as when originally assigned.

It is your responsibility to visit the absent bins, check the class calendar, fill in your agenda, and talk to me if needed when you return from an absence no matter what the reason is. You have ONE DAY from the date you return for every absent day to make-up the work and turn it in.. For missed quizzes or tests, you are responsible to set up a time with me (during class or during PEP) WITHIN ONE WEEK or your grade will result in a zero in the gradebook.

Extra Help

Visit during PEP times twice a week to ask questions, do practice problems, complete assignments, or review concepts.

By 6th grade, we expect students to be responsible and accountable for their academics. . Please take advantage of this opportunity!

Daily/Weekly Routine

I understand and agree to the guidelines listed above.
I am ready to have a successful year.
